MAY 19, 2006

FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY TO THE CLASS OF 2006

May 2006

Dear University of Colorado Graduate of 2006:

There are special occasions in our life where we pause to reflect and recall the past, consider the future and remind ourselves of our accomplishments and purpose.

Graduation is such an occasion.

The University of Colorado has offered you an education that is intended to expand your knowledge and skills to compete. Your educational experience will serve you well in your pursuits, as we know it has for tens of thousands of graduates who have come before you.

The inventor Alexander Graham Bell once said, "When one door closes another door opens; but we so often look so long and so regretfully upon the closed door, that we do not see the ones which open for us."

As you look ahead and take advantage of the doors that open in your life, we hope you will recall the experience and the strides you have made at CU.

The University of Colorado is an extraordinary institution. Ultimately what you do with your life will determine the worth of our university. We are confident your education can make a difference in your life, providing great potential for your future.

Congratulations again for reaching this major milestone. We wish you success, prosperity, happiness and good health as you apply your CU education in the next phase of your life.

Sincerely,

Hank Brown

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN OF OFFICE

The Presidential Chain of Office was created in 1980 by Mary Sartor, M.F.A., University of Colorado, Boulder, for the inauguration of President Arnold R. Weber. The chain was a gift to the university by Mr. and Mrs. David G. Hawthorn, Class of '24.

Colorado gold and silver are used throughout the chain to symbolize the importance of those minerals to the history of the state. The gem stones chosen also consist entirely of minerals from Colorado.

Three pendants are suspended on the chain. The back pendant is the seal of the State of Colorado surrounded by a golden ribbon representing the golden "Circle of Knowledge." The top pendant in the front, the seal of the University of Colorado surmounted by an arch set with diamond and topaz, signifies the necessary link between the search for knowledge and its practical application to the world outside the university. The seal is supported at the bottom by the laurel wreaths found in the seal, emblematic of honor and success.

The bottom pendant is centered with a golden topaz indicating man's quest for knowledge. The surrounding ring is paved with fragmented cubes and diamonds which suggest fragments of knowledge with brilliant breakthroughs of understanding.

The chain surrounding these pendants symbolizes the endless but ever-changing cycle of human knowledge.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The University of Colorado has used three seals in its lifetime.

The present seal, adopted in 1908, depicts a classical Greek male figure seated against a pillar and holding a scroll. A burning torch framed in laurel is placed beside him. The Greek inscription means "Let your light shine."

According to Denver designer Henry Reed, the classical design was used because Greek civilization "stands as the criterion of culture." The laurel symbolizes honor or success, the youth of the figure suggests the "morning of life," and the scroll represents written language.

From 1893 to 1908, a seal was used which copies Wyon's medallion, "Science Trims the Lamp of Life." The classical figure of a kneeling Greek woman was flanked by mariposa lilies, which President Baker described as "a true Colorado flower."

Before 1893, a seal was used which essentially copies the Colorado state seal. It was never adopted by the Regents.

The official seal of the University of Colorado is used only by the Regents in transmitting official business.

THE NORLIN CHARGE TO GRADUATES

(From the baccalaureate address by President George Norlin, of the University of Colorado, June 1935)

“You are now certified to the world at large as alumni of the university. She is your kindly mother and you her cherished sons and daughters.

This exercise denotes not your severance from her, but your union with her. Commencement does not mean, as many wrongly think, the breaking of ties and the beginning of a life apart. Rather it marks your initiation in the fullest sense into the fellowship of the university, as bearers of her torch, as centers of her influence, as promoters of her spirit.

The university is not the campus, not the buildings on the campus, nor the faculties, nor the students of any one time — not one of these or all of them. The university consists of all who come into and go forth from her halls, who are touched by her influence and who carry on her spirit. Wherever you go, the university goes with you. Wherever you are at work, there is the university at work.

What the university purposes to be, what it must always strive to be, is represented on its seal, which is stamped on your diplomas — a lamp in the hands of youth. If its light shine not in you and from you, how great is its darkness! But if it shines in you today, and in the thousands before you, who can measure its power?

With hope and faith, I welcome you into the fellowship. I bid you farewell only in the sense that I pray you may fare well. You go forth, but not from us. We remain, but not severed from you. God go with you and be with you and us.”

ACADEMIC DRESS

The tradition of the academic costume began during the twelfth or thirteenth century in the early European universities. Since the clergy composed the majority of the educated class, academic dress is an adaptation of the cape or mantle which was usually of silk or wool and worn by church dignitaries in religious processions.

Through the years, great diversity in color and in style of cap, gown and hood developed. In 1896, the colleges and universities in the United States adopted a uniform code governing academic dress. Today, the black gown, hood, and mortar board worn by the graduates in most institutions follow this code.

While it is not apparent to the casual observer, the gowns worn by the recipients of the various degrees vary somewhat in design. The sleeves of the gown worn by the baccalaureate candidate are long and pointed, while the sleeves of the gown worn by the master’s degree recipients are square at one end with a slit at the elbow. The doctor’s gown has flowing sleeves with three bars of velvet, and facing of velvet down the front of the gown.

Those who receive a master’s or a doctoral degree from the University of Colorado wear hoods lined with the school colors, silver and gold. The hood worn by the doctoral candidate differs in design from that of the master’s as it has side panels and is slightly longer. The velvet border of the hood indicates the degree and usually follows the same code as the color of the tassels.

The oxford cap, usually referred to as a mortar board, is black and has a long tassel which is fastened by a button on the top. Candidates for the baccalaureate degree wear the tassel pendant over the right front of the cap before the degree is conferred, then it is worn on the left side. Cum Laude candidates wear bronze honor cords. Magna Cum Laude and honors candidates wear silver honor cords. Summa Cum Laude and special honors candidates wear gold honor cords.

UNIVERSITY MEDAL
THOMAS M. JAMES

Thomas James is a strong supporter of the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs and has been a champion for this campus — helping strengthen community involvement and awareness; providing leadership to fundraising efforts; and serving as a resource for the chancellor. His law firm has extensive experience in representing nonprofit and for-profit entities.

Tom is a firm believer in the importance and impact of community service. For several years he has been actively engaged in serving the UCCS campus. In addition to his personal financial contributions, he has shared his leadership skills in volunteering his time, expertise and personal connections to campus-wide fundraising efforts. He first served as vice chair for our Campaign Leadership Council and then as chair. In this capacity, he has been a strong supporter and advocate for this campus and has eloquently spoken to community, university, foundation and other groups about the strengths, opportunities and fundraising needs for the campus. Besides chairing fundraising campaigns for UCCS, Tom served on the CU Foundation Board of Trustees and is a charter member of both the Chancellor's Roundtable and the College of Business Community Strategies Planning Team.

He has quietly, but passionately, worked in his various roles to strengthen the connection between community and university. In his role with the Chamber of Commerce's board of directors and as chair of the Military Affairs committee, he helped bring together key military and academic personnel to forge a unique opportunity for the campus to establish a center to address the critical problem of protecting the information-based economy and national security.

Chancellor Shockley-Zalabak explains, "Tom is one of those few community leaders who is always available to assist the campus in anyway and has provided valuable services to this campus for over a decade."

Beyond his service to UCCS, Tom also serves on the Board of Directors for the Children's Literacy Center and the Colorado Springs Sports Corporation. In 2000, he served as chair of the Greater Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce Military Affairs Council and is now currently still a member of the steering committee.

In honor of his many contributions and unwavering support of this campus and the Colorado Springs community, the University of Colorado Board of Regents proudly presents Thomas James with the University Medal.

America the Beautiful

Oh Beautiful for spacious skies
For amber waves of grain
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!

And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

CU Alma Mater

Hail, all Hail our Alma Mater
Ever will our hearts be true
You will live with us forever
Loyal we will be to you.
We will sing forever your praises
Ever more our love renew
Pledge our whole devotion to you
Dear Old CU!
