

MAY 23, 2008

FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY TO THE CLASS OF 2008

May 23, 2008

Dear University of Colorado Graduate,

Congratulations for earning your degree from the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs.

I still remember the deep sense of pride I felt when I accepted my geology degree from the University of Colorado. My education has served me well over the years, and I am sure yours will, too. Welcome to the generations of alumni around the globe who carry that pride within them. Our collective legacy has been to leave a positive and meaningful mark on Colorado and the world.

Accepting your degree after years of self-sacrifice and dedication is one of life's greatest achievements. When you walk away from this exciting day, my hope is that you will do so with a passion to pursue your dreams. Never forget how the university shaped you and prepared you to face life's challenges. Expect nothing but the best from yourself and those who surround you on your journey through life.

Students who have passed through the campus' classrooms, laboratories, lecture halls and libraries have emerged with a greater understanding of their place in the world. The University of Colorado community is proud of you and your accomplishments. As you leave here to start careers, draw on your academic achievements at UCCS to help you succeed and inspire others.

Today is your day to shine and share your accomplishments with your family and friends. We wish you success, prosperity, happiness and good health in all your endeavors.

Sincerely,

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN OF OFFICE

The Presidential Chain of Office was created in 1980 by Mary Sartor, M.F.A., University of Colorado, Boulder, for the inauguration of President Arnold R. Weber. The chain was a gift to the university by Mr. and Mrs. David G. Hawthorn, Class of 1924.

Colorado gold and silver are used throughout the chain to symbolize the importance of those minerals to the history of the state. The gem stones chosen also consist entirely of minerals from Colorado.

Three pendants are suspended on the chain. The back pendant is the seal of the State of Colorado surrounded by a golden ribbon representing the golden “Circle of Knowledge.” The top pendant in the front, the seal of the University of Colorado surmounted by an arch set with diamond and topaz, signifies the necessary link between the search for knowledge and its practical application to the world outside the university. The seal is supported at the bottom by the laurel wreaths found in the seal, emblematic of honor and success.

The bottom pendant is centered with a golden topaz indicating man’s quest for knowledge. The surrounding ring is paved with fragmented cubes and diamonds which suggest fragments of knowledge with brilliant breakthroughs of understanding.

The chain surrounding these pendants symbolizes the endless but ever-changing cycle of human knowledge.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The University of Colorado has used three seals in its lifetime.

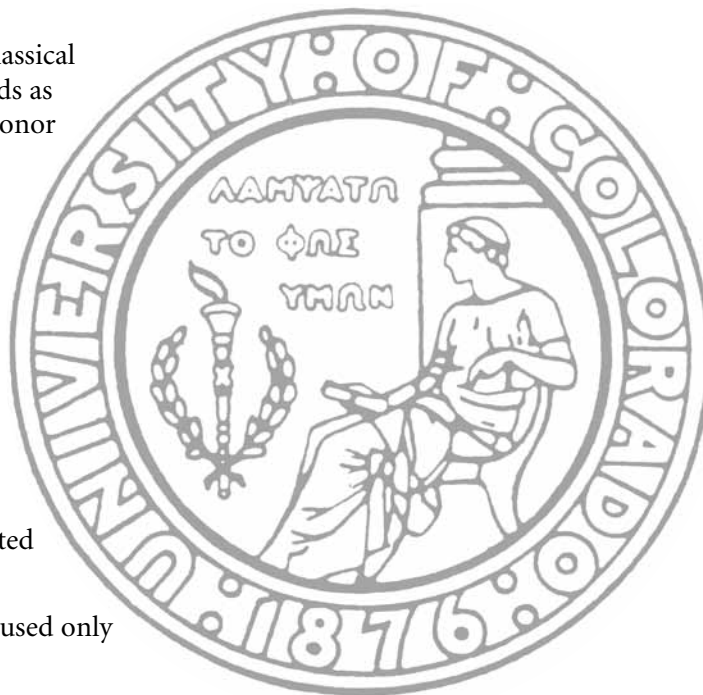

The present seal, adopted in 1908, depicts a classical Greek male figure seated against a pillar and holding a scroll. A burning torch framed in laurel is placed beside him. The Greek inscription means “Let your light shine.”

According to Denver designer Henry Reed, the classical design was used because Greek civilization “stands as the criterion of culture.” The laurel symbolizes honor or success, the youth of the figure suggests the “morning of life,” and the scroll represents written language.

From 1893 to 1908, a seal was used which copies Wyon’s medallion, “Science Trims the Lamp of Life.” The classical figure of a kneeling Greek woman was flanked by mariposa lilies, which President Baker described as “a true Colorado flower.”

Before 1893, a seal was used which essentially copies the Colorado state seal. It was never adopted by the Regents.

The official seal of the University of Colorado is used only by the Regents in transmitting official business.

THE NORLIN CHARGE TO GRADUATES

(From the baccalaureate address by President George Norlin of the University of Colorado, June 1935)

“You are now certified to the world at large as alumni of the university. She is your kindly mother and you her cherished sons and daughters.

This exercise denotes not your severance from her, but your union with her. Commencement does not mean, as many wrongly think, the breaking of ties and the beginning of a life apart. Rather it marks your initiation in the fullest sense into the fellowship of the university, as bearers of her torch, as centers of her influence, as promoters of her spirit.

The university is not the campus, not the buildings on the campus, nor the faculties, nor the students of any one time — not one of these or all of them. The university consists of all who come into and go forth from her halls, who are touched by her influence and who carry on her spirit. Wherever you go, the university goes with you. Wherever you are at work, there is the university at work.

What the university purposes to be, what it must always strive to be, is represented on its seal, which is stamped on your diplomas — a lamp in the hands of youth. If its light shines not in you and from you, how great is its darkness! But if it shines in you today, and in the thousands before you, who can measure its power?

With hope and faith, I welcome you into the fellowship. I bid you farewell only in the sense that I pray you may fare well. You go forth, but not from us. We remain, but not severed from you. God go with you and be with you and us.”

ACADEMIC DRESS

The tradition of the academic costume began during the twelfth or thirteenth century in the early European universities. Since the clergy composed the majority of the educated class, academic dress is an adaptation of the cape or mantle which was usually of silk or wool and worn by church dignitaries in religious processions.

Through the years, great diversity in color and in style of cap, gown and hood developed. In 1896, the colleges and universities in the United States adopted a uniform code governing academic dress. Today, the black gown, hood, and mortar board worn by the graduates in most institutions follow this code.

While it is not apparent to the casual observer, the gowns worn by the recipients of the various degrees differ somewhat in design. The sleeves of the gown worn by the baccalaureate candidate are long and pointed, while the sleeves of the gown worn by the master’s degree recipients are square at one end with a slit at the elbow. The doctor’s gown has flowing sleeves with three bars of velvet, and facing of velvet down the front of the gown.

Those who receive a master’s or a doctoral degree from the University of Colorado wear hoods lined with the school colors, silver and gold. The hood worn by the doctoral candidate differs in design from that of the master’s as it has side panels and is slightly longer. The velvet border of the hood indicates the degree and usually follows the same code as the color of the tassels.

The oxford cap, usually referred to as a mortar board, is black and has a long tassel which is fastened by a button on the top. Candidates for the baccalaureate degree wear the tassel pendant over the right front of the cap before the degree is conferred, then it is worn on the left side. Cum Laude candidates wear bronze honor cords. Magna Cum Laude and honors candidates wear silver honor cords. Summa Cum Laude and special honors candidates wear gold honor cords.

HONORARY DEGREES AND AWARDS

UNIVERSITY MEDAL

PETER B. TEETS

Peter B. Teets is known for his uncompromising pursuit of excellence. No matter what the role – CEO, University of Colorado alumnus, public servant, parent, grandparent, or education advocate – he exemplifies the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs core value of excellence.

Receiving a bachelor's of science degree in applied mathematics from the University of Colorado at Boulder, a master's of science degree in applied mathematics from the University of Colorado at Denver, and a master's of science degree in management from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Peter Teets has much to celebrate.

Professionally, he has held several prestigious positions. Until his retirement in 2005, he served as the under secretary of the Air Force and the director of the National Reconnaissance Office in Washington, D.C. He worked for more than 30 years in various capacities with Martin Marietta Corp., serving as president of the space group before a merger with Lockheed Martin Corp. He retired in 1999 as Lockheed Martin's president and CEO.

A Sloan fellow, Peter Teets has received several prestigious honors such as the Bob Hope Distinguished Citizen Award, Schriever Award, Hartinger Award, Dr. Wernher von Braun Space Flight Trophy, the University of Colorado Distinguished Engineering Alumnus Award, and the University of Colorado Science Award.

But, it is his commitment to education, CU and UCCS that sets him apart. Peter Teets comes from a long lineage of University of Colorado alumni. His father, sister, brother and children are all part of the CU family, attending one of the CU System Universities. Peter Teets is a past member of several engineering advisory boards and committees and most recently he, along with his wife Vivian, established an endowed scholarship for electrical engineering students at UCCS, and donated $1 million to establish the David E. Teets wing in the UCCS Science and Engineering Building in honor of their late son. This endowment and wing create a lasting memorial to their son and their hope for future engineering students.

For his many achievements and significant philanthropic and personal contributions to UCCS, the community and nation, the University of Colorado Board of Regents is proud to award Peter B. Teets the 2008 University Medal.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

THOMAS A. SAPONAS

Thomas A. Saponas embodies the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs' core values of community interaction and student success.

An alumnus of UCCS, Tom Saponas understands that student success is directly tied to strong community support and involvement. Perhaps that is why 36 years after his graduation from UCCS with a bachelor's degree in science and electrical engineering and a master's degree in electrical engineering, Mr. Saponas continues to be an integral part of the UCCS campus.

A welcome guest in the classroom, Tom often mentors and provides counsel to students. He has served as a volunteer for the UCCS freshman seminar and he is always willing to share his stories of the importance of his education.

In addition to his work with students, Tom Saponas is a resource to campus leadership. He has been a member of the UCCS Science and Engineering Community Advisory Group, the UCCS Engineering Advisory Board and the CU Foundation Board of Directors. He helped guide the development of a new computer engineering program.

Not only does Tom Saponas contribute his time to UCCS, he is also a donor. In 2000, he and his wife Charlotte, established an endowed scholarship fund. Three years ago, they provided the largest gift by any engineering alumnus, increasing the endowment.

It is a credit to Mr. Saponas' professional success that he is able to be so generous to UCCS. Now retired, he was with Hewlett Packard (HP) for more than 25 years as vice president, general manager, marketing manager, and group research and development manager. When HP and Agilent became two companies, he served as senior vice president and chief technology officer for Agilent.

UCCS applauds Tom Saponas for his successes. In 1986, he was awarded the University's Leadership Award, and the College of Engineering and Applied Science lounge is named after him. Today, the University of Colorado Board of Regents is proud to present Thomas A. Saponas with the 2008 Distinguished Service Award in honor of his numerous contributions to and unwavering support of UCCS.
